Community Service Requirement (60 points)

Giving back to the community through community service is one of the most rewarding experiences young adults can have. I encourage young individuals to seek out and get into the agriculture industry in their local community to learn from those who have built up and sustained this community through the agriculture industry.

- 20 hours of community service in the agriculture industry.
 - Ex: assisting farm, ranch, or family operation to include anything in the realms of livestock, hay baling, or hands on experience.
- Two full page essay on community service experience and why agriculture is needed in the community.
